Floral Inspired Jewellery

Semi Precious stones enhances floral inspired jewellery simply because of the range of cuts, texture and colours available..

A key trend in the past few years has been the use of floral and natural shapes in jewellery ranging from butterflies to various flowers.

The floral piece is usually the focal point teamed with faceted beads or pearls or natural beads.

Floral embellishments are used to draw the eye particularly as centre pieces in bracelets and necklaces.

The carved floral centre pieces can be made from semi precious stone or river shell flower.

Floral and natural inspired jewellery is available from the Mai Mai range.
