

Glamour39.com Presents Jewellery Gifts for The Christmas Season

Christmas Jewellery gifts at Glamour39.com! Glamour39.com has brought together six beautiful key jewellery collections ranging from the flower influenced Mai Mai Collection to the Glamour Vintage collection in time for the Christmas season.

Glamour39.com is an online jewellery consortium that showcases all six of our jewellery collections. Each collection comes under the Mai Mai Jewels company and all of our jewellery collections can be found in one space ready in time for Christmas and Gift shopping.

‘Jewellery is one of the most important presents you can give for any occasion including Christmas’ say Diane Calliste, Co-founder of Glamour39.com ‘we provide a wide selection of jewellery suitable for all budgets, styles and occasions ranging from our sourced vintage jewellery collection to jewellery consisting of semi precious stones and pearls.

The latest jewellery collection from Glamour39 consists of contemporary semi precious jewellery, statement pieces, our bracelet collection from the Jewel Candy range and vintage jewellery. Choose from crystal encrusted brooches, to fabulous statement necklaces, classic pearls to delicate bracelets.

‘We have also introduced accessories and our vintage style evening bags embellished with vintage style brooches can be removed and worn separately - highly suitable for Christmas and New Year parties’ says Diane.

‘We also have trend pages showcasing how our jewellery can be worn – just in time for Christmas of course’ states Diane.

If you’re still wondering what to buy, maybe a beautiful stack of bracelets from the Jewel candy range consisting of world beads teamed with semi precious stones and Swarovski Crystals or something from the Diva Princessa range which showcases crystal pearls teamed with gold and silver chain and vintage embellishments.

‘There is something from everyone and part of the gift giving process is presentation and in theme with the website, everything is superbly packaged in pink and white tissue and placed in our signature fuchsia pink gift boxes’ states Diane.

Vintage jewellery is a particular popular gift as it emphasises the unique rarity of some pieces of vintage jewellery. Vintage jewellery makes a nice special present and because of the one off nature of vintage jewelry can make a particularly special gift.

The jewellery collections are available from www.glamour39.com.
