Vintage Wedding & Bridal Jewellery

Vintage jewellery particularly lends itself very well to wedding and bridal outfits because vintage jewellery depending on the year it was created can be very feminine with detailed points.

The use of distinctive embellishment and florals ensures that vintage jewellery will add a touch of glamour or class to a wedding wardrobe.

Rhinestones, pearls, gold and silver embellished beading and finishing ensure that the focus is kept on the bride.

Vintage wedding jewellery can also be passed down to a daughter or grand daughter and is a perfect start to establishing a heirloom collection of jewellery to be enjoyed by each generation.

Vintage hair pins although small, do deliver a visual impact as they can be seen as jewels for the hair.
